Welcome to the website of the Integrative German-Albanian Association

IDEAL, the Integrative German-Albanian Association, is a unification of German-Albanian associations, institutions and common people. Being a non-profit organisation, the main aim of IDEAL is to improve the bilateral relations by increasing the cooperation in the areas of integration, economy, culture and society. Our activities in Germany are focused on the region of the federal state North Rhine-Westphalia.
In this section „About us“ you will find further information on our society’s foundation in 2011, on our aims and goals as well as on how our society is organised.

We would be delighted to stay in contact with you. Please write us to the e-mail address info@i-de-al.org.

IDEAL organises in a creative way different projects in the areas of education, society, culture and economy.

Please find further information on our partner’s as well as on our own activities in our current newsletter, in our latest news section (all available in German and/or Albanian language).
